Summer 2017

BOOK
LOVER
BINGO!

How does Book Lover Bingo work?

Spend your summer reading or listening to great books and fill out your card by writing the title in the square. Complete a diagonal, horizontal, or vertical line and submit your card for a grand prize drawing of a $50 Toadstool Gift Certificate. Runner up prize will also be awarded. Drawing is August 31st!

How to enter?

Drop off your card at the front desk or post a photo of it on Instagram with the following hashtag and tag: #BookLoversBingo2017

Do they all have to be printed books?

Not at all! Any format is acceptable including ebooks, and audiobooks.

Can I enter more than once?

Yes, but you are on your honor not to use the same book twice!

Need some ideas for what to read?

We have lots of suggestions for all the categories! Ask at the help desk for ideas. You can also use Novelist to find read-alikes.

The very fine print:

You are on your honor to read books before adding them to your Book Lover's Bingo Card. Cheating, skimming, or reading the CliffNotes will invoke bad summer karma, which may include but is not limited to—sunburn, ants at your picnics, or swarms of mosquitos.
